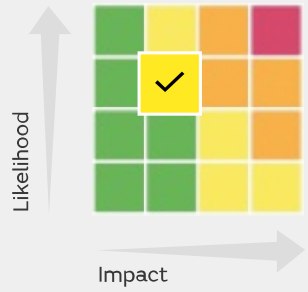
Sleet and snow showers over north Scotland during Monday leading to some travel disruption

What to expect

- Some roads and railways likely to be affected with longer journey times by road, bus and train services
- Some injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces
- Probably some icy patches on some untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths

Further details

Overnight into Monday showers will start to feed in from the north, falling as sleet and snow. These are likely to leave surfaces wet with some icy stretches as well as snow accumulations of 2-3 cm in places.



Medium likelihood of low impacts
